The 62nd Winter Park Sidewalk Art Festival
Virtual Festival: March 15- March 31, 2021
Live Festival: May 14, 15, 16, 2021

For Immediate Release
March 2021

It's true, The Winter Park Sidewalk Art Festival has moved this year's live festival from March to May 14, 15, & 16, but the tradition of bringing art to Central Florida in March continues with their first ever Virtual Festival March 15 through the March 31.

The Virtual Festival will kick-off on Monday, March 15 with the 2021 Poster Unveiling at 6:00 pm. The public is invited to join the event by logging onto the festival's website at www.wpsaf.org. Victor Bokas, the acclaimed 2020 festival poster artist will appear to discuss his 2021 companion poster, which also features his signature, whimsical style. Both posters will be on sale on Saturday, March 20th at the Farmer's Market in Winter Park until 1pm and at the stage in north Central Park in the afternoon.

March's Virtual Festival gives you a preview of this year's accepted artists that will appear live in May. It's an opportunity to shop in advance at the artists' on-line booths from the comfort of your home! Take part in the Scavenger Hunt as you browse and you could win original artwork and other prizes. The Virtual Festival will also include the Leon Theodore Schools Exhibit featuring amazing artwork from students throughout Orange County. The Children's Workshop will be on-line too. Area museums will participate with virtual art projects for the kids, including craft kits that can be picked upon Saturday March 20 at the stage in Winter Park's north Central Park and completed with on-line instructions.

The tradition continues May 14, 15, and 16 at the in-person event. The Winter Park Sidewalk Art Festival is one of the nation's oldest and most prestigious juried fine art shows. It is ranked among the most highly regarded outdoor art shows in the nation and its artists compete for one of the largest cash awards ($74,500) among the top shows.

The Festival features original artwork that has been designed and executed by the exhibiting artists during the past two years. The show is held in historic downtown Winter Park, a beautifully landscaped area whose surrounding streets are closed during the Festival to allow for foot traffic only. Artists' booths nestle under large oak trees in Central Park and line Park Avenue in the heart of this charming downtown with brick streets, unique boutique shops, and inviting outdoor cafes and bistros.

In keeping with COVID-19 guidelines, the event may look a little different this year, but rest assured that the Festival is taking all of the necessary precautions to ensure a safe and successful experience for all of our artists, volunteers and art lovers.

For more information about the festival and current updates, visit the website at <http://wpsaf.org/>.

Subject: CASE # 2016-CA-7634 • FOLEY et ux. v.ORANGE COUNTY et al.

Ms. Lanosa:

We are asking the Court to move the due date of our Initial Brief from Monday March 29, 2021, to Wednesday, June 16, 2021.

That is a month after the Winter Park Sidewalk Art Festival, which as a result of Covid has been re-scheduled for May 14-16.

As you know we publish a program for the festival.

Between now and the date of the festival we need to dedicate ourselves not only to preparing the program but to other household demands, e.g., re-roofing our mobile home on Cupid and installing a new water filtration system there before the rains and heat of summer.

As do-it-yourselfers, the program, the roof, and the water system will consume all of our time.

Since the decision in the last appeal we have been consumed with catching up on all that went undone while making that appeal, with post-decision attempts to get the attention of the Florida Supreme Court, and with preparations for what we expect to do this spring

Court, and with preparations for what we expect to do this spring.

In other words, we need a little wiggle room.

What do you say?
